

4.4.2 – Procedures and policies for maintaining and utilizing physical, academic and support facilities - laboratory, library, sports complex, computers, classrooms etc. (maximum 500 words) (information to be available in institutional Website, provide link)

Educational laboratories: The college has different laboratories like the mathematics lab, computer lab, psychological lab, physics lab, chemistry lab, botany lab, zoology lab, history lab, language lab, and the geography lab. Each laboratory is well furnished with the sitting arrangements, ventilation, teaching aids, equipments and lighting. The windows of the computers are updated. The instructor are qualified as per the requisite qualifications underlined by the NCTE , UGC and the affiliating university. There is a smart classroom. The college has projector where the teachers are encouraged to take classes with the help of it. The laboratories are maintained by the concerned subject teachers and kept clean.

Library: The college Library is fully automated through which is connected with server and Local Area Network. This software is assist to Library for their housekeeping operations such as acquisition cataloguing, circulation, OPAC, serial control, stock verification, etc. For purchasing of books, Library received the recommendation form from the faculty and students, after check their duplicate titles and then placed the order to the vendor. The library has a college of latest books as per the structured syllabus. Each year new titles are bought and added to the library. There are journals, newspapers, magazines, computers, Xerox machine. The visitors (students and staff) details are recorded and maintained.

Sports: There are facilities to encourage students to engage in sports activities. Both indoor and outdoor games are included in the college. There are several equipments for different sports events. The college also has a good space for undertaking sports activities. The faculty member equally initiates in the sports activities. Along with the physical health and activity, gym, yoga and meditations are also encouraged by the institution. The college organizes annual sports meet. The playground is maintained and beautified to make it sports friendly.

Computer: The college provides ample computer facilities to teachers for teaching and students for learning. The computers are care for on the regular bases by expert computer teacher with the help from experienced attendant. They are mechanically verified before handling. Internet service is available in each of the computer.

Classroom: The rooms used as classrooms are well planned, well ventilated, well lighted with scientific seating arrangements. Employees are engaged to keep the classroom clean. Drinking water facility is more or less provided to the students.

Others: The college has sufficient classrooms, students common rooms (boys and girls separately), medical facilities, drinking water facilities, toilet facilities (boys and girls separately), play ground, auditorium, conference hall, hostel and quarter facilities.

Principal
Balurghat B.Ed College